SUBJECT: TEACHING OF HOLY QURAN IN GOVERNMENT AND PRIVATE SCHOOLS

Compulsory teaching of Holy Quran to Muslim students is an integral part of Education Policy. It has been noted with concern that the policy is not being implemented effectively in its true spirit. The teaching of Holy Quran depends on the way how it is assessed in the Annual and Term Examinations. The issue of compulsory teaching of Holy Quran has been raised in Provincial Assembly time and again and the Provincial Government also constituted a Special Committees on the subject.

2. For this purpose various Paaras of Holy Quran have been specified for each class from Grade-III to VIII. Various Surahs have also been specified for Hifz-e-Quran and translation in the curriculum. The detail is attached as Annex-A. Detailed instructions for Islamiat Teachers have also been printed on the first page of the books of Compulsory Islamiat. The Government has also allocated 40% marks of Islamiat for the teaching of Holy Quran. The following directions are hereby issued on the subject:-

ALLOCATION OF TIME

- i) At least 40% periods of Islamiat will be allocated for Nazira teaching of specified Paaras, selected Surahs for Hifz-e-Quran and translation of specified portion of the Holy Quran.
- ii) The Head Teachers may consider Zero periods in addition for selected Sections during Assembly.
- iii) On Friday there should be special focus on teaching of Holy Quran.
- iv) It should be part of homework and special homework during summer vacation.

ASSESSMENT

- i) It will be mandatory that 40% marks in Islamiat are allocated for Nazira, Hifz-e-Quran, translation and Tajweed in monthly Class Test conducted by DTEs, Term Tests, Annual Examination and PEC Examinations.
- ii) The Punjab Examination Commission shall not leave it to the discretion to the Examiners. It will ensure printed sets of papers for 40% marks of Nazira, Aadab-e-Quran, Tajweed and translation of specified portion of Holy Quran for each center. The paper will be conducted with due reverence.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR TEACHING OF HOLY QURAN

- i) The Head Teacher shall be responsible for ensuring the teaching of Holy Quran according to the curriculum division to all Muslim students of his institution.
- ii) The concerned Islamiat Teacher shall be responsible to ensure that 100% students of his class cover the given syllabus of Holy Quran.
- iii) The Head Teacher is fully empowered to assign additional responsibility for teaching of Holy Quran to Arabic Teachers or any other teacher or arrange a private person on voluntary basis.
- iv) Head Teacher can use FTF funds for purchase of Sipara Sets. However, it is preferable that they arrange them through donation of Paaras for this purpose or ask the students to bring their own Paaras.
